

Job Description
Program Assistant
Location: Washington, D.C.

About Free the Slaves

Founded in 2000, Free the Slaves (FTS) is a pioneer and leader in the global effort to eradicate slavery. Our work is grounded in the fight to counter slavery and to change the conditions that allow slavery to persist. Free the Slaves works at the grassroots to empower vulnerable individuals and communities to achieve freedom from slavery and develop resistance to slavery. We work with and through local partners to build national capacity to combat slavery and trafficking.

Headquartered in Washington, D.C., with projects in West Africa, South Asia, the Caribbean, and the Middle East and North Africa. Free the Slaves has a talented and dedicated staff, and a highly engaged and supportive board of directors.

Responsibilities

- Be a point of contact for the FTS programs teams for administrative matters
- In the office coordinator role, ensure coordination of essential HQ office needs including IT, logistics and some operations
- Assist the country and regional teams and partners, as needed, regarding administrative aspects of day-to-day operations
- Assist in developing, editing, and formatting reports and other project or presentation documentation
- Assist with the review and preparation of budgets and financial reports including the realignment of existing budgets, financial reconciliations, and payments for invoices and expenses
- Respond to internal and external requests for information
- Work with the FTS programs team on internal and external communications
- Coordinate travel arrangements for programs staff, as needed
- Coordinate the logistics of overseas staff and sub-awardees as needed
- Attend organizational meetings at HQ and support departmental meetings and other events
- Fulfill other programmatic, administrative and financial functions as required

Qualifications

Required

- An existing right to work in the U.S. (green card or U.S. citizenship)
- Fluency in English
- Strong English writing skills, including ability to write for different audiences

- Strong organizational and time management skills
- Can multitask and prioritize multiple tasks based on deadlines
- Is interested in working with grassroots, community-based organizations, especially those with a human rights mission
- Familiarity with government grants: process and delivery
- Passion and commitment to ending modern slavery
- Innovative spirit and willingness to use creative thinking
- Determination and ability to sustain positive, respectful and dynamic relationships with colleagues and partners, alongside expectations of mutual accountability
- Ability to develop budgets, understand income and expenditure reports and give meticulous attention to financial management
- Ability to work with limited administrative support
- Relevant bachelor's degree (e.g., international development, human rights, business administration, community work/social work)

Preferred

- At least two years of relevant experience
- Fluency in Spanish, French, Arabic or other languages
- Experience in the anti-slavery and anti-trafficking movement
- Substantial experience with Microsoft Suite, especially Excel
- Grant management and program operations management experience
